

Below is how we treat major cracks, ie structural ones usually due to issues within the foundation or lack of expansion joints

The cracks have to be widened, packed in with wire mesh & closed then primed...

and painted.

All these are mainly structural cracks usually due to movements within the building structure

Primed and...

then painted

